1. Sale through over-allotment, etc.

At the time of the public offering, the Investment Units that SMBC Nikko Securities Inc., the lead administrative manager for the public offering, will borrow from Invesco Investments (Bermuda) Ltd., subject to the upper limit of 13,100 units (However, this borrowing is subject to sale of 4,324 units through the public offering to Invesco Investments (Bermuda) Ltd., as set forth in “(Reference) 5.

Note: This press release is a document that will be announced publicly relating to the issue of new investment units of the Investment Corporation and the sale of investment units and is not prepared for the purpose of solicitation for investment. At the time of investment, investors should view the prospectus on the issue of new investment units and the notification of the sale of investment units prepared by the Investment Corporation, and its revised parts, and invest according to their own judgment.

Designation of distributed parties”), may be sold (sale through over-allotment) separately from the public offering after taking the state of demand, etc. for the public offering into account. The number of investment units for sale through over-allotment is scheduled to be 13,100 units. However, such number is the upper limit and there will be cases where the number will decrease according to the state of demand, etc., or sale through over-allotment will not be conducted at all.

The Investment Corporation has resolved that it will issue new investment units through the third party allocation of 13,100 units of the Investment Units, designating SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. as the allocated party (hereinafter the “Third Party Allocation”) and June 29 (Wednesday), 2016 as the date of payment at the meeting of the board of directors of the Investment Corporation that was held on May 16 (Monday), 2016 in order for SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. to acquire the Investment Units necessary to return the Borrowed Investment Units in association with the sale of investment units through over-allotment.

In addition, SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. may purchase the Investment Units (hereinafter the “Syndicate Cover Transaction”) during the period from the day following the expiration date of the period of application for the public offering and sale through over-allotment to June 24 (Friday), 2016 (hereinafter the “Syndicate Cover Transaction Period”) with the aim of returning the Borrowed Investment Units subject to the upper limit that is the number of units for sale through over-allotment on the TSE. All the Investment Units purchased by SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. through the Syndicate Cover Transaction will be appropriated for the return of the Borrowed Investment Units. There will be cases where SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. will not conduct any Syndicate Cover Transaction or will end the Syndicate Cover Transaction with a number of units that is less than the number of units for sale through over-allotment during the Syndicate Cover Transaction Period at the judgment of SMBC Nikko Securities Inc.

Furthermore, SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. may conduct stabilizing transactions in the public offering and sale through over-allotment. All or part of the Investment Units purchased through such stabilizing transactions may be appropriated for the return of the Borrowed Investment Units.

With respect to the number of units obtained by deducting the number of units that will be purchased through the stabilizing transactions and the Syndicate Cover Transaction and will be appropriated for the return of the Borrowed Investment Units from the number of units for sale through over-allotment, SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. plans to acquire the Investment Units according to allocation relating to the Third Party Allocation. There will therefore be cases where no application has been submitted for all or part of the issue relating to the Third Party Allocation and, as a result, the final issue relating to the Third Party Allocation will decrease to that extent due to the loss of right, or there will be no issue.

Whether or not sale through over-allotment will be conducted and the number of investment units for sale will be determined on the Issue Price Decision Date. If sale through over-allotment is not conducted, SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. will not borrow the Investment Units from Invesco Investments (Bermuda) Ltd. Accordingly, SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. will not agree to allocation according to the Third Party Allocation and will not submit an application, and therefore no new investment units will be issued through the Third Party Allocation due to the loss of right. In addition, the Syndicate Cover Transaction will not be conducted at the TSE.

The transaction described above will be conducted after SMBC Nikko Securities Inc.’s consultation with Nomura Securities Co., Ltd.
